Rev Anne: The angel card for this week’s show is the Divinely Intuitive angel card. “I easily and frequently connect with my intuition in building my business. I am Divinely Intuitive!”

We all have the ability to connect with the Divine whenever we need it. Years ago I got some pendulums, but I never connected with them deeply. For me angel cards have always the thing.

Some people use dowsing, some use automatic writing. There are lots of different ways to connect,

Sometimes, though, I get really stumped and usually that's when I end up going swimming to get clear. And recently, I pulled out my pendulum and the information that I'm getting is fascinating. There becomes a point where we don't need the tools anymore.

If you're not grounded and clear, you're not going to get an intuitive hit. Being present allows you to receive that information. When you're not grounded, and the window is really gross and needs to be cleaned, the sunlight comes through, but it's a lot more filtered and cloudy. When you're not grounded, it's like putting your batteries the wrong way around in your remote control.

Here are some ways to ground:

- (1) Drink water.
- (2) Put your feet on the earth and it will draw out your negative electromagnetic energy.
- (3) Tapping allows your energy to flow in the right direction.
- (4) For me water is a powerful conductor for downloads. It clears those windows.

Make a list of the things that really work for you. Ways to pull your energy inwards.

You will have your own telltale signs that your energy is getting depleted in the physical and the emotional.

For me, this all ends up in Radical Self Care, in fact I think I'm going to call it Divine Self Care. We're always taking care of other people and our homes and finances. Oftentimes, as intuitives we're taking care of the rest of the world, until we stop taking care of ourselves and our own emotional tank runs dry and we can't give anything to anyone else.

When we do things for ourselves, we're in a better place to provide things that other people need: our team members, our family, our pets.

Here are ways to access your intuition:

- (1) Get unbusy. Get calm and quiet. You'll start to receive really brilliant messages.
- (2) Practice gratitude. Pray for and bless your clients. Put light around them and what they're doing. Your clients connect with that. You're holding that space for them.
- (3) Ask the questions.
- (4) Trust your intuition. Especially when choosing your clients. When a disconnect shows up in a strategy session, it's going to show up later in your work. Watch out for those intuitive hits. It's not worth ignoring them for the money.

- (5) Create intentions.
- (6) Ask how can I be of service? I really do dedicate my business to the Divine. It's dedicated to connecting with and bringing out other spiritual entrepreneurs into the world. The more we shine our light, the more we give others permission to shine their light.
- (7) Ask your Angels to connect you to the right people all the time. You can ask them to help you write copy, find the right team member.

There are 4 main ways to receive the information

- (1) Clairaudience (clear hearing): I hear distinct sounds and tones and voices in my head.
- (2) Clairvoyance (clear seeing): many receive information in their dreams.
- (3) Claircognition (clear knowing): just knowing things.
- (4) Clairsentience (clear feeling): people who get things in their bodies. Being grounded is especially important for these people.

Now we're going to do some mini intuitive readings...

Caller 1

Kristina: You've already answered the question I wanted to know. When I talk to potential clients I get excited when they're excited, but when I'm putting together a proposal, how do I know?

Some days I don't trust what I'm hearing or what is being put in front of me.

Rev. Anne: I just pulled 3 cards:

- (1) You are a powerful lightworker
- (2) Emotional sensitivity.

You are empathic. It's about discerning. As an empath, that can be a real challenge. You need to learn how to disconnect and pull the plug from them.

Kristina: I have a deep desire to be needed, so that means that I don't need to be needed.

Rev. Anne: Your third card is:

- (3) Archangel Michael – Ask him for help.

Kristina: I think I'd just forgotten that I'm a powerful lightworker because my world has been turned upside down lately.

Caller 2

Rev. Anne: now we've got Sherry on the line.

Sherry: I have a Thanksgiving trip, but I don't want to go and I want to know how to endure it.

Rev. Anne: How can you change your relationship to something you've committed to?

The first card is the Sacral Chakra card. You get blocked. Tapping will help immensely.

Write out “I don’t want to be here because...” and then tap on that. Do that before you even go there to create it as somewhat neutralized.

Then the question you can ask: “What is working about this?” You become the co-creator.

The second card is the Crown Chakra card. Think about ways you can create fun moments. The games you can play in the car. Nowadays there are DVDs.

The third card is Service: if you get nervous, focus on service.

I just pulled the “Be willing to forgive” card. My sense is that you are going to have to be in constant co-creation.

Sherry: I feel much better with this now. Thanks.

Caller 3

Tiko: My question is that when I get into alignment energetically with my goals, immediately afterwards something goes wrong in my relationship. What can I do to prevent this from happening?

Rev. Anne: This is such a great question. When you get into alignment with something and start having other areas of your life showing up as not in alignment, those are the areas that are still catching up to your new level of alignment.

The people in your life need to catch up. They have their own fear, which is actually your own fear. You don't have to resist it by getting into an argument.

My husband is so good at non-resisting. He's probably one of the most grounded people and it able to go with the flow.

These people are just modelling your own inner fears. Then, if you're triggered by theirs, then there are things that you need to look at to do the inner work.

Call upon Archangel Michael to help you diffuse the situation.

Next card: Emotional sensitivity. You're very aware of this. Be aware of it and trust it. Honor it.

Last card: Manifestation card. Use your spiritual gifts. You have an ability to manifest very quickly!
