Create Divine Abundance Affirmations

Hello, Divine One!

Here are your Divine Abundance affirmations. In order for these to be the most effective, you may want to record the ones you really love in your own voice. Edit these to be what you resonate with... the way you think, what you dream of having. Add beautiful music you love.

However, if you prefer to listen to them the way I have created, they are beautiful ... and effective.

Notice how your connections with money deepens and grows as you listen to these affirmations. And then notice how you respond to tasks like paying bills, receiving gifts and money, and how much more receptive you are around money.

Pay attention to how the world around you becomes more abundant, fun, and receptive (because you are)!

Because as know: when you change your thoughts and energy, you change the world around you.

Enjoy them!
