Create Your Divine Love & Passion Affirmations

Hello Divine One!

Here are your Love & Passion affirmations. In order for these to be the most effective, you may want to record the ones you really love in your own voice. Edit these to be what you resonate with... the way you think, what you dream of having. Add beautiful music you love.

However, if you prefer to listen to them the way I have created, they are beautiful ... and effective.

Notice how your connections with others deepens and grows as you listen to these affirmations. And then notice how you respond to your friends, your partner or spouse, your children, and your clients. Notice how the world around you becomes more loving, more kind and more joyous.

Because as you change your own thoughts, you change the world around you.
